Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

O Pray For The Peace Of Jerusalem
Thomas Tomkins (1572 - 1656)

V
We will lay us down in peace and take our rest;

R
For it is thou, Lord, only that maketh us dwell in safety.

V
Blessed art thou, Lord God of our fathers;

R
To be praised and glorified above all for ever.

V
Let us bless the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost;

R
Let us bless him and magnify him for ever.

V
Blessed art thou, O Lord, in the firmament of heaven;

R
To be praised and glorified above all for ever.

V
The Almighty and most merciful
Lord guard us and give us his blessing.

REPEAT ANTIPHON

Have mercy upon me, O God, and hearken unto my prayer.

Look Down O Lord

CHAPTER

O
It is as true to say that God is permanent and the World fluent, as that the World is permanent and God is fluent.

R
Thou, Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Name: leave us not, O Lord our God.

O
It is as true to say that God is one and the World many, as that the World is one and God many.

R
Thou, Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Name: leave us not, O Lord our God.

O
It is as true to say that God transcends the World, as that the World transcends God.

R
Thou, Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy Name: leave us not, O Lord our God.

O
It is as true to say that God creates the World, as that the World creates God.

All
Thanks be to God.

Opening Remarks

Officiant The Lord almighty grant us a quiet night and a perfect end.

All Amen.

Officiant Beloved, be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour; whom resist steadfast in the faith.

O But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us:

R Thanks be to God.

O Our help is in the name of the Lord;

R Who hath made heaven and earth.

We confess to God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, before the whole company of heaven, that we have sinned exceedingly in thought, word and deed, through our fault, our own fault, our own most grievous fault; therefore we pray God to have mercy upon us. Almighty God have mercy upon us, forgive us all our sins and bring us everlasting life.

Officiant (May) the almighty and most merciful God grant to us pardon, absolution and remission of all our sins, time for true repentance, amendment of life and the grace and comfort of his Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

V Turn us, O God our Saviour:

R And let thine anger cease from us.

V O God, Make speed to save us:

R O Lord, make haste to help us.
